Washington DC's Old Town Trolley Tour

Date: Saturday, March 27, 2010

Our day will begin (and end) at Union Station, which is the most visited tourist attraction in Washington, D.C. It has over 100 places to eat, drink and shop. When you're ready, step aboard a 'heated' Old Town Trolley with your all-day boarding pass that is included in the price of the trip. Sit back while the expert 'trolley' tour guides help you discover the beauty and majesty of Washington D.C. By the way, the cherry trees should be in full bloom. This fully narrated (3) hour tour covers over 100 points of interest. The licensed and professional 'trolley' tour guides share colorful anecdotes, humorous stories and well researched historical information. Hop on - Hop off as often as you like. As you tour the nation's capital you will have the opportunity to get off the trolley and visit memorials, museums, and historical points of interest; as well as opportunities for shopping and dining throughout the city. When you're ready, just reboard and it's on with the tour. Trolleys will come by each stop every 30 minutes. Your Boarding Pass is your ticket to rejoin the tour at any of the (19) designated stops. $85.00. Price includes Old Town Trolley Boarding Pass.
