

Natalie Buelow-Quigley

Natalie is a California girl born and raised. She has been experimenting with all aspects of hair and fashion on and off for the majority of her life. Since early in her childhood, she knew her future would be in the beauty industry. She recently moved to New Jersey where she was married and now resides in the small town of Little Egg Harbor.

She attended the Rizzieri Aveda Cosmetology School in Marlton, NJ where she learned the essential lessons on hair, skin and makeup. She has been with Splashes Salon and Day Spa for a little over a year and does everything from haircuts to makeup. Natalie is also certified in all aspects of skin care including facials, waxing and body scrubs.

When she is not working, Natalie enjoys cooking, baking, shopping, exercising and being with family and friends. One of Natalie's passions is helping others feel beautiful about themselves. This has been her goal since she began in the beauty industry and she strives to accomplish this daily.

Natalie can be reached at (609) 294-8797 or SplashesBeautiqueDaySpa.com

Annette Weniger

Annette currently resides in Freehold, NJ. She was born in Trenton and raised in Hamilton, NJ.

Annette has been working in the optical field for 10 years. She became an American Board Certified Optician in 2004. Her passion for eyeglasses and patient care has kept her in the field for a long time. In her many years of experience she has overcome new challenges in every aspect of her career. She enjoys creating high quality lenses and maintaining a large frame inventory, ultimately providing patients with a wide array of spectacle selection. Annette's skills go well beyond optics. Her keen marketing sense and genuine care for patients has won her many accolades among her peers. Her time with The Eye Center at Jackson has increased her knowledge, particularly when working with Dr. Raghu, who has given her a greater depth of understanding in vision and ocular health.

Annette has a 6 year old son, Tyler, and a 4 month old daughter, Sophia. She enjoys spending most of her leisure time surrounding herself with her family and close friends.

Kathryn E. Corbet, APN-C

Kathryn, originally from McClellandtown, Pennsylvania currently resides in Toms River with her husband of 38 years, Eric. She raised three wonderful children: Clifford, Sean and Amy and is the proud grandmother of three grandsons.

With over 19 years of nursing experience, Kathryn is a nurse practitioner with Visiting Physician Services treating elderly and homebound patients in Ocean County. "Visiting Physician has provided me with the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of my clients", says Kathryn. "Sometimes, I'm the only one they see for an entire month. I not only address medical needs, but provide a healthy dose of social interaction."

Kathryn also conducts community education programs and is actively involved in her church. She serves as Deacon, the Chair of Health Ministry and the Craft Director for Vacation Bible School. She also helps the less fortunate by cooking monthly meals for the homeless.

Kathryn enjoys fishing, traveling and spending time with her family, friends and church fellowship. She says her house has always been a menagerie filled with dogs, birds, fish, hamsters and cats. Husband Eric jokes, "She'll need to keep making house calls to feed all the animals!" With Kathryn's passion for helping the frail elderly, that shouldn't be a problem.

Diane Southern, RN

Administrator of the Endoscopy Center's of Ocean County and Toms River

Diane, a resident of Toms River for the past 22 years, was born and raised in Mahwah, where she graduated from high school. Following high school, she attended Muhlenberg Hospital School of Nursing, in Plainfield, where she served as President of the Student Body. In 1972, she earned her Registered Nurse license and has been working in that profession ever since. Her career experience over the past 38 years has been varied, from working in ICU-CCU, ER, Obstetrics, Special Care Nursery, Ambulatory Care, and Endoscopy. In 1996, the Endoscopy Center of Ocean County, (owned and operated by the Gastroenterologists of Ocean County) was opened and Diane was hired as the nursing supervisor. In order to meet the increased demand for quality outpatient endoscopy services, the Gastroenterologists opened a second center in 2009 (the Endoscopy Center of Toms River) at which time Diane's was appointed Administrator of both facilities. She is responsible for day to day running the facilities, staffing and maintaining quality of care. She has been instrumental in preparing for, successfully achieving and maintaining Joint Commission Accreditation for both centers.

Diane is a former American Cancer Society Reach to Recovery volunteer. Along with her late husband, Bill volunteered with CanSurmount, a support group for cancer patients.

In her spare time she enjoys gardening and decorative painting. The true joy of her existence are her two sons, Rob and Scott and her 2-year-old grandson, Will.
