Waves of Grace Women's Wildwood Weekend offers women of all ages, races and denominations an opportunity to encounter the grace and love of God through a time of worship, hearing the Word, and fellowship.

Join hundreds of women as we hear the renewing words of our keynote speaker, Retired Bishop Violet Fisher.

Bishop Fisher's awards include the Martin Luther King Freedom Award, Philadelphia Congress Stellar Service Award, National Sojourner Truth Meritorious Award, and The United Methodist Church Denman Evangelism Award. She was named Black United Methodist Preacher of the Year for the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church in 1993.

Her publications include contributions to Women of Color Devotional Bible 2000.

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Workshop A

"Celebrate Who You Are In Christ." Reprogram your thinking to that of a Christian view, being a daughter of the King, "who was knit together in your mother's womb with a plan and a purpose." Ps. 139

Workshop B

"Spiritual Disciplines"
The spiritual disciplines are, "a means of receiving God's grace as they allow us to place ourselves before God so he can transform us." Explore fasting, journaling, centering, and other techniques to draw you closer to God.

Workshop C

"How to Read the Bible for Change." Someone once said, "The purpose of Bible study is transformation, not information." That maxim expresses God's desire for us as we study His Word. Learn how to let your Bible reading be to gain a true knowledge of God, a personal knowledge which requires reading with your whole being.

Workshop D

"Lydia Prayer Group"

The name is taken from the story in Acts 16:6-15 where Paul went to the riverbank to find a place of prayer and encountered Lydia and a group of women praying. The main focus of a Lydia Prayer Ministry is to stand in the gap and pray for revival beginning with our own hearts.
